- B. The nomination (other than multiple nominations) once made in respect of a given folio would automatically extend to the shares further acquired in the same folio. Similarly, if all the shares in a folio are transferred from such folio, nomination so made in respect of such folio, nomination so made in respect of such folio will automatically stand cancelled.
- C. In case of multiple nominations, nomination once made in respect of particular distinctive shares in one folio will not extend to the shares further acquired in the same folio, and the holder will have to give fresh nomination for such shares. Nominations given for the existing shares will prevail.
- D. Nomination once made can be revoked / changed by subsisting fresh nomination form upon receipt of which the earlier nomination will stand cancelled.
- E. A valid nomination, once made, will override a Will or other testamentary documents executed by the deceased shareholder and the Company will not entertain any claim from any person other than the registered nominee.
